Privacy Notice for External Visitors

The SCA Group comprises a number of companies and operations. Each SCA company is the data controller for its processing of personal data within the business relationship between that SCA company and the company for which you are a contact person or representative. The company within the SCA Group with which you are in contact is therefore the issuer of this notice.
SCA continually takes the necessary measures to ensure that your personal data is processed in accordance with applicable data protection legislation and good market practice. Further information about your rights in relation to SCA when SCA processes your personal data, as well as the legal bases for processing and SCA's fundamental principles, is provided in the General Privacy Notice, available at sca.com/gdpr.

Personal data SCA processes about you

We may process the following personal data about you in connection with visits by external visitors:

- Name,
- company, and
- vehicle registration number, where applicable, for a parking permit.

If we do not obtain the personal data listed above directly from you, we obtain it through other business contacts or public sources, such as websites and similar sources.

Why SCA processes your personal data

SCA processes personal data about external visitors for safety and security purposes, so that we know who is present on the relevant premises in the event of an incident.
The legal basis for our processing is legitimate interests, following a balancing of interests. Our legitimate interest is to know who is present on the mill or factory premises in the event of an incident, for safety and security purposes (for example, if an evacuation is required).
Your personal data is recorded in connection with your visit and deleted on a rolling basis.
