New SVP Human Resources for SCA

SCA has recruited Gordana Landén as the company's new SVP Human Resources.

Gordana Landén joins SCA from the telecommunications company Ericsson where she has held a number of senior positions since 1991. She is currently Vice President Human Resources and Organization for their business unit Global Services with responsibility for approximately 28,000 employees worldwide.

Gordana Landén has broad and sound experience of a wide range of HR issues in an international environment. Gordana Landén will take up her new position at SCA within three months. She will report to the President and CEO Jan Johansson and be a member of SCA's senior management team.
