

Press release

Stockholm, September 10, 2015

Gordana Landén resigns from SCA to assume new role in a global listed company

Gordana Landén, SCA's Senior Vice President Human Resources and member of the Executive Management Team, will resign from her position at SCA to assume a new role in a global listed company.

"SCA is a leading global hygiene and forest products company where, for the past eight years, Gordana Landén has played a significant role in the development of a global HR organization and strategies to support the business. I would like to thank Gordana for her time at SCA and wish her all the best in her new role," says Magnus Groth, President and CEO of SCA.

Gordana Landén will leave SCA in October 2015. The recruitment process for her successor is under way.

---

NB: This information is such that SCA must disclose in accordance with the Securities Markets Act or the Financial Instruments Trading Act. Submitted for publication on September 10, 2015, at 08:00 CET.

---

---

For further information, please contact:

Karl Stoltz, Media Relations Manager, +46 8 788 51 55

SCA is a leading global hygiene and forest products company. The Group develops and produces sustainable personal care, tissue and forest products. Sales are conducted in about 100 countries under many strong brands, including the leading global brands TENA and Tork, and regional brands, such as Libero, Libresse, Lotus, Nosotras, Saba, Tempo and Vinda. As Europe's largest private forest owner, SCA places considerable emphasis on sustainable forest management. The Group has about 44,000 employees. Sales in 2014 amounted to approximately SEK 104bn (EUR 11.4bn). SCA was founded in 1929, has its headquarters in Stockholm, Sweden, and is listed on NASDAQ OMX Stockholm. More information at www.sca.com.